

M. FELIX FAURE DIED LAST NIGHT

PRESIDENT OF THE FRENCH REPUBLIC DIES IN PARIS.

Succumbs to an Attack of Apoplexy
And a Pall of Sadness is Cast Over the Republic—National Assembly to Elect a Successor Next Saturday.

Paris, Feb. 17.—[Special]—A pall of dead uncertainty and stupor hangs over Paris this morning, as a result of the sudden and touching death of M. Felix Faure, president of the French republic. The National Assembly will meet next Saturday to elect a successor. The funeral of the late M. Felix Faure occurs here next Thursday, and will be a national event. All the theatres of the city were closed today in honor of the hero, and will continue closed until the day of the funeral. The cause of his death was internal hemorrhage of the brain, brought on by overwork. Numerous messages of con-solence are being received hourly from the most exalted European personages. Faure's farewell to his wife was exceedingly touching and brought tears of sympathy from those at the bedside. He thanked her for the affection she had always borne him and it was with difficulty she was conveyed from the body.

The body was embalmed this morning and removed to Grand Salle de Fete. Exceptional measures have been taken to prevent disturbances.

Revolution is Imminent

Rome, Feb. 17.—[Special]—The Papal Nuncio at Paris has telegraphed the Vatican that he fears the death of President Faure, and he is followed by a change of government through collision between the army and the Bonapartists.

Rome, Feb. 17.—[Special]—The pope said mass today for the repose of the soul of the late M. Felix Faure.

Paris, Feb. 17.—[Special]—The chamber of deputies, after a brief sitting today, adjourned for two days. President Deschanel addressed the chamber, reviewing the life of M. Felix Faure, paying a glowing tribute to his character. Among the candidates to succeed Faure is Jules Cambon, French ambassador to the United States. All troops are confined to their barracks.

Rome, Feb. 17.—[Special]—Today when the Pope was apprised of Faure's death His Holiness exclaimed: "Poor France, she suffers misfortune after misfortune. What terrible consequences may follow?"

London, Feb. 17.—[Special]—A Brussels dispatch says: Prince Victor Napoleon, head of the Bonapartist house, says he believes Faure committed suicide. The prince's secretary has gone to Paris and Prince Roland Bonaparte started for Brussels.

Paris, Feb. 17.—Felix Faure, president of the republic, died Thursday evening at 10:10 o'clock of an apoplectic stroke, complicated by cardiac trouble.

The president was working with M. le Gall, chef de cabinet, when, about 5 o'clock, he complained that he felt ill. He did not attach much importance to it, and went out for an hour's drive, hoping the indisposition would pass off. Instead, it became worse, and on his return to the Elysee M. le Gall noticed a marked and alarming change in his face. He was evidently very ill, and M. le Gall had to give him his arm to lead him to a sofa.

Mme. Faure was immediately informed. The president was taken to his room and messengers were hastily sent to fetch the nearest physician. It was not long until Dr. Laurelongue and Dr. Potin arrived, but after a very brief examination they declared that there was nothing to be done.

There had been a rush of blood to the brain and the president was past human aid.

The cure of the Madeleine was summoned to administer the last sacraments, but the messenger failed to find him, and a young priest passing along the Faubourg St. Honore was called in to administer extreme unction.

The president became insensible and remained unconscious for at least an hour before death. At 10:10 all was over.

The ministers, who had been advised, had all hastened to the Elysee, and held a meeting immediately after the death. They will meet again today to take the necessary steps in connection with summoning the corps legislatif.

The cabinet will meet to-day, after the embalming of the remains, to fix the date for convening the national assembly at Versailles to elect M. Faure's successor.

The national assembly, consisting of the senate and chamber of deputies united in congress, will probably meet to-day. Emile Loubet, as president of the senate, becomes president of the congress.

It is expected that the struggle for the presidency will be very keen. M. Dupuy, the premier, is supposed to have the best chance, and the contest is regarded as lying between him, M. Henri Brissson and M. Loubet. Other possible candidates are M. de Freycinet, minister of war; Godfrey Cavaignac, former minister of war, and Questnay de Beaurepaire. It is reported that the recently formed league known as La Patrie Francaise will actively push M. de Beaurepaire's candidature.

Under the present exceptionally exciting conditions anything may be expected to happen. Much depends upon what Gen. Zurlinden, military governor of Paris, as head of the military element, may decide to do.

So far Paris remains tranquil. By a curious coincidence M. Dupuy occupied the same position which he held when President Carnot was assassinated on June 24, 1894.

M. de Freycinet has ordered the troops confined to barracks.

SCORES OF BILLS ARE INTRODUCED

TODAY THE LAST DAY FOR NEW BUSINESS.

In the Senate, 303 Bills Have Been Introduced As Against 393 Two Years Ago—The Senate Passes Anti-Pass Bill—Other Work at Madison.

Madison, Wis., Feb. 17.—[Special]—This is the last day for the introduction of new business in the legislature and scores of bills came into each house. A small calendar was disposed of in the assembly but most of the morning was taken up in receiving.

More important bills introduced were: The Lewis primary election law. To secure prompt payment of wages. Appropriating $10,000 to erect a monument to the memory of ex-Gov. Dewey.

To establish a board of railroad commissioners. To regulate railroad corporations and fix charges.

To prevent black listing. To regulate the lobby.

NO MORE FREE PASSES.

Aldermen, Under Bill Passed By The Senate, Cannot Accept Annual Admission Tickets To Opera House.

For many years the opera house has not been charged a license fee in consideration of the fact that free passes were given to the aldermen, and the fact that the aldermen complained that Manager Myers had failed to send passes for two performances to the aldermen, is said to be responsible for the case against him recently begun in the court.

The time honored custom must now become a thing of the past, however, for public sentiment on the pass question has become too strong to be trifled with. The passing of the anti-pass law by the senate was the cause of general rejoicing because it means the death of the iniquitous pass system. The bill passed by the senate, in Section I, says:

Section I.—No public officer or person elected or appointed to a public office under the laws of this state, shall directly or indirectly ask, demand, accept, receive, or consent to receive for his own use or benefit, or for the use or benefit of any other, ANY FREE PASS, free transportation, franking privilege or discrimination in passenger, telegraph, express, sleeping car or telephone rates from ANY PERSON, or corporation or make use of the same himself, as in conjunction with another. Any person who violates ANY PROVISION of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $500 nor less than $200.

There can be no question but what the bill covers the granting of annual passes to aldermen by Manager Myers, of the opera house, as it says no public officer shall accept "any free pass" from "any person," etc.

For the taxation of freight line and equipment companies.

Abolishing the office of county superintendent.

A no-seat-no fare street car bill.

To encourage the manufacture of beet sugar.

Paying a bounty on pig iron.

Eighty-four bills were introduced in the senate and another session will be held this afternoon.

The senate now has 303 bills, against 393 two years ago.

The anti-pass bill was taken up by the senate and the only speech made was a humorous farewell, eulogy to the pass made by Senator Woodworth, and it was then passed with only Senator Stebbins voting against it.

Senator McGillivray introduced a bill providing that the railroads be compelled to carry officials, judges and other officials free of charge.

Senator Roehr introduced the anti-lobby bill, making provisions for two classes of lobbyists one known as legislative attorneys and the others as legislative agents.

The members of both houses were invited to visit the new reformatory at Green Bay, next Wednesday.

Senator Kreutzer's pass bill.

Requiring that one-tenth of money received for liquor in cities of third class be used for kindergartens.

Madison, Wis., Feb. 17.—Mr. Daggett of Bear Creek introduced in the assembly Thursday a joint resolution looking to the protection of the health of women, young, old, and married, in the state of Wisconsin by making a law to prohibit tight lacing. He proposes a commission to be made up of three members of the assembly and one of the senate to draft and introduce a bill prohibiting tight lacing. Mr. Daggett says he is serious about the matter and intends to push it to a successful end. He says, further, that he believes tight lacing is a menace to the health of posterity, and that the custom imperatively requires remedial legislation.

BRYAN ADDRESSES STUDENTS ON PENDING PROBLEMS.

Refuses to Accept the Invitation to Address the Legislature—Meeting of Loan and Building Association League—Other News of an Interesting Nature.

Madison, Wis., Feb. 17.—William J. Bryan made a speech in the university gymnasium last night under the auspices of the University Athletic association. After the meeting Mr. Bryan held an informal reception in the Avenue hotel. He was entertained while here at the home of Mayor W. H. Rogers, an old personal friend. Mr. Bryan gave $250 of his share of the proceeds to the university to establish a fund for an annual prize for the best essay on government.

Mr. Bryan's subject was "Pending Problems," and he touched nearly every question before the public in his speech, which lasted from 8:30 till nearly 11 o'clock.

Col Bryan was greeted by the university "U-Rah Rah," as he stepped on the platform. He was presented by E. H. Clausen, president of the University Athletic association. The first question he discussed was "the evils of the prevailing taxation system," which Col. Bryan declared, placed the public burdens on the poor and exempted both corporate and private wealth. The government could force citizens from their homes to sacrifice their lives in battle, but it apparently could not force accumulated wealth to pay its just share of the taxes. He urged the election of United States senators by popular vote. Col. Bryan closed his speech with an argument against expansion.

LATE NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

LAWTON GOING TO ILOILO.

Will Relieve Gen. Miller of His Command.

THE LATTER TO RETURN HOME.

Administration Said to Be Preparing for the Occupation by Our Troops of Other Philippine Cities—Dispatch from Gen. Otis.

Washington, Feb. 17.—Brig.-Gen. Miller will be relieved from command of the troops in Iloilo before his retirement next month, and Maj.-Gen. Lawton will in all probability be assigned to succeed him.

Gen. Lawton will reach Manila about the 1st of March, and will therefore arrive in ample time to be sent to Iloilo to relieve Gen. Miller, who will be ordered home. By the time of Gen. Lawton's arrival it is expected that Gen. Miller will have sent a force to occupy Cebu, though this is a matter which rests entirely in the hands of Gen. Otis.

In fact, the authorities admit that the war program in the Philippines is in the hands of Gen. Otis and Rear Admiral Dewey, but there is a disposition not to make any aggressive movement and to secure American occupation as peacefully as possible.

It is not believed that any difficulty will be encountered in occupying Cebu or any of the other ports throughout the islands, to which expeditions will be sent in the near future.

Instructions have been prepared for Rear Admiral Dewey under which that officer will send ships around to the different islands to inform the natives of the change of sovereignty. It was thought that these instructions had gone, but it was said at the navy department that they had not been sent to Admiral Dewey.

The war department Thursday received the following:

Manila, Feb. 16.—Adjutant-General, Washington: Harvey H. Harris, company B, Twentieth Kansas, flesh wound left leg, doing well; John Sorenson, First Montana, reported probably dead, is alive, but both eyes shot away, condition fair. Cable of 7th reported William J. Hayes, First Washington, wounded slightly, is error. Oval F. Gibson, company E, First Washington, reported missing, was found with a sprained leg. Corporal Hayes, First Montana, cabled on 6th as missing, is with his regiment.

PASS SUPERIOR COURT BILL.

Indiana Governor Will Be Asked Not to Sign the Measure.

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 17.—The bill which provides that the county commissioners shall furnish a place for holding the sessions of the superior court in Lake and Laporte counties at Hammond and Michigan City respectively, and which was opposed because it was believed to be the first step in an effort to move the seats of county government to these cities, was passed by the senate Thursday, and now lacks only the governor's signature to become a law. The pressure that was brought to bear on the senate to prevent the passage of the bill has now been turned upon the executive, and it is possible that he will listen to argument before he decides upon his action.

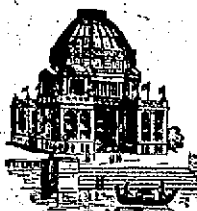

The senate also passed the bill to fix the salaries of circuit and superior judges in counties of not over 45,000 population or $25,000,000 property valuation. In such counties the salaries are to be fixed at $25 for each 1,000 population. The new law will affect the salaries of the judges in the second, eighth, eleventh, thirteenth, fourteenth, sixteenth, thirtieth, thirty-fourth and sixtieth judicial circuits.

Cumulative Evidence

A proof of merit in any article is the amount of free advertising it receives. The universal success of Fabst Malt Extract, The "Best" Tonic, is largely due to one person's telling another of the benefits derived from its use. It is sold in almost every city and town in the United States. Its purity and efficacy have given it the immense popularity it has attained. It is endorsed by thousands of physicians and patients. It makes strength. It gives vigor and health when every avenue of hope seems to be closed.

When you ask for Fabst Malt Extract, The "Best" Tonic, do not be led into buying something else. Many imitations have recently appeared. Remember that Fabst Malt Extract, The "Best" Tonic, was the only malt preparation declared perfect by the judges at the World's Fair, and alone marked with 100 points of perfection. The way to obtain the greatest amount of benefit for the least amount of money is to have your druggist deliver you a dozen bottles at a time.

Senator Drummond and providing that the sheriff shall forfeit his office in the event that he suffers a prisoner to be taken from his custody and lynched, was killed, and with it died the prospect of legislation along this line at the present session.

The house met at night to discuss the bill providing for 2-cent railroad passenger fare. The railroad committee reported against the bill, and after a two-hours discussion the report was adopted by a vote of 49 to 24, and the bill was killed.

PECULIAR POISONS.

GENERATED IN THE HUMAN BODY

The Result of Perfect Digestion of Food

Every living thing, plant or animal, contains within itself the germs of certain decay and death.

In the human body these germs of disease and death (as led by scientists Plomaines), are usually the result of imperfect digestion of food; the result of indigestion or dyspepsia.

The stomach, from abuse, weakness, does not promptly and thoroughly digest the food. The result is a heavy, sodden mass which ferments (the first process of decay) poisoning of the blood making it thin, weak and lacking in red corpuscles; poisoning the brain, causing headaches and pain in the eyes.

Bad indigestion irritates the heart, causing palpitation and finally bringing on disease of this very important organ.

Poor digestion poisons the kidneys, causing Bright's disease and diabetes. And this is so because every organ, every nerve depends upon the stomach alone for nourishment and renewal, and weak digestion shows itself not only in loss of appetite and flesh, but in weak nerves and muddy complexion.

The great English scientist, Huxley, said the best start in life is a sound stomach. Weak stomachs fail to digest food properly, because they lack the proper quantity of digestive acids (lactic and hydrochloric) and peptogenic products; the most sensible remedy in all cases of indigestion, is to take after each meal, one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets because they supply in a pleasant, harmless form all the elements that weak stomachs lack.

The regular use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will cure every form of stomach trouble except cancer of the stomach.

They increase flesh, insure pure blood, strong nerves, a bright eye and clear complexion, because all these result only from wholesome food well digested.

Nearly all druggists sell Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at 50 cents full sized package or by mail by enclosing price to Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich., but ask your druggist first.

Central Pacific's Debt.

Washington, Feb. 17.—Attorney-General Griggs said yesterday that no foundation existed for the statement that a plan of settlement of the Central Pacific railroad indebtedness has been concluded. A conference has been held on the subject of a proposed plan of settlement, just as other conferences have been held, but the matter was not concluded, and, the attorney-general said, may not be concluded for some time.

SETBACK FOR CANAL BILL.

Friends of Nicaragua Measure Suffer Another Defeat.

THE HOUSE HITS AT THE PLAN.

Attempt to Have the Sundry Civil Bill Sent Back for Amendment Meets with Failure—Proceedings in the Senate.

Washington, Feb. 17.—After the sundry civil bill had been completed and reported to the house Thursday, Mr. Hepburn of Iowa, the champion of the Nicaragua canal bill, moved to recommit it with instructions to report it back with the canal bill incorporated in it.

This was an unexpected move, as it was generally understood that Mr. Hepburn had abandoned all hope after his defeat Wednesday. But he believed that his motion would have additional strength in the house, where members could be put upon record.

The motion was promptly declared out of order by the speaker, whereupon Mr. Hepburn appealed, and Mr. Payne of New York moved to lay the appeal on the table. Upon the latter motion the vote was taken, and the result was 97 yeas and 67 nays.

As no quorum was developed on the vote, owing to the lateness of the hour the friends of the canal bill managed to carry an adjournment until to-day. This gives them a breathing spell in which to marshal their forces for their final encounter, and to-day, as soon as the house meets, the vote will again be taken.

Objected to the Appropriation.

Washington, Feb. 17.—While the house was considering the sundry civil bill Thursday, Representative Wheeler of Kentucky created a mild sensation by raising a question of order against the item appropriating $20,000,000 to be used in carrying out the obligations of this government involved in the treaty of peace with Spain. As the appropriation could not be carried in the sundry civil bill without the unanimous consent of the house, Chairman Hopkins promptly sustained the point of order made by the member from Kentucky.

Thereupon Mr. Williams of Mississippi, probably with a view of relieving the democratic side of responsibility for the defeat of the appropriation, appealed from the decision of the chair. After quite an animated debate, in which Representatives Cannon, Dockery, Williams, Bailey and Dooliver were participants, the house voted with practical unanimity to sustain the ruling of the chair.

In the Senate.

Washington, Feb. 17.—The army reorganization bill was reported to the senate Thursday, and Mr. Hawley (Conn.), chairman of the military affairs committee, gave notice that he would move to proceed to its consideration at the earliest possible time. For the minority, Senator Cockrell (Mo.) submitted a minority report. The naval personnel bill was taken up and read, but no effort made to proceed further with its consideration.

The military academy appropriation bill was passed. The postoffice appropriation bill was under consideration during the greater part of the afternoon, but was not disposed of finally.

A bill providing an additional circuit judge in the third judicial circuit was passed.

The senate at 5:25 p. m. went into executive session and at 5:35 p. m. adjourned.

Dangers of the Grip

The greatest danger from la grippe is of its resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for la grippe we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia, which shows conclusively that this remedy is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. It will cure la grippe in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by People's Drug Co., corner Main and Milwaukee streets.

If the Baby Be Cutting Teeth

Be sure and use the old and well tried remedy, Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

For La Grippe

Thomas Whitfield & Co., 240 Wabash ave., corner Jackson street, one of Chicago's oldest and most prominent druggists, recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for la grippe, as it not only gives a prompt and complete relief, but also counteracts any tendency of la grippe to result in pneumonia. For sale by People's Drug Co., corner Main and Milwaukee streets.

Boys Put Ties on the Track.

Valparaiso, Ind., Feb. 17.—Three attempts were made late Wednesday night to wreck Grand Trunk trains about two miles west of this city. Two freight engines ran against obstructions, but succeeded in shoving them to one side without serious damage. The third attempt would have caught the midnight east-bound passenger train but for the arrival of a yard engine, which removed a dozen or more ties. Roy Galbraith, a farm hand, confessed to doing the work, and implicated Frank Roadmeyer. Both were arrested. They are about 20 years old.

To Probe Miles' Charges.

Washington, Feb. 17.—All the members of the court of inquiry convened by order of the president to investigate the charges of Maj.-Gen. Miles concerning the food furnished the army have arrived in Washington, with the expectation of organizing the court today. The court was ordered to meet Wednesday, but the snow blockade prevented a literal compliance as to time of meeting. The court is directed "to investigate certain allegations of the major general commanding the army regarding the fitness for issue of certain articles of food furnished by the subsistence department to the troops in the field during the recent operations in Cuba and Porto Rico. In addition to the findings of fact, the court will submit an opinion upon the merits of the case, together with such recommendations as to further proceedings as may seem to be warranted by the facts developed in the course of the inquiry."

To Keep Hospital at Manila.

San Francisco, Cal., Feb. 17.—Acting on advice received from Manila by cable the California Red Cross society has decided to continue the maintenance of its hospital station in that city as long as the California volunteers remain in the Orient.

ACCEPT NO PASSES

The license committee of the common council, it is said, has offered to drop the case begun against P. L. Myers, manager of the opera house, if Mr. Myers will pay the costs, and furnish the city officials with annual passes—fourteen in all. In other words, the council will not ask Mr. Myers to contribute a cent to the city treasury if he makes the aldermen and city officials "deadheads."

What a proposition to make in the face of the strong public sentiment against the issuing of passes to public officers!

If the council desires to punish Mr. Myers by compelling him to pay the fees the charter fixes—$10 per performance, or about $700 per year—the punishment can doubtless be inflicted, and Mr. Myers will, of course, be compelled to close the opera house. Mr. Myers is willing to pay a license fee, proportionate to the sum charged in other cities, and has asked that the council fix the sum. The request was refused, and later a prosecution was begun—in the holy desire, of course, to "protect the interests of the people." Now, however, the council will drop the case in consideration of receiving ANNUAL PASSES, leaving the matter where the city will not receive one cent!

It would seem that this farce had gone far enough. No prohibitive price should be forced on Mr. Myers. If the council decides that the opera house should be required to pay a license—while lecture courses and other amusement enterprises are not required to do so—a reasonable license fee should be fixed. But for the city officials to ask for passes for themselves in lieu of cash for the city, is preposterous. The aldermen are public servants. Therefore they should act in accordance with public sentiment, and refuse to accept passes of any description either from Manager Myers, a railroad, a telephone, or an express company.

PASSING OF THE SENTINEL

In commenting on the fact that a bill has been introduced at Madison to make The Milwaukee Evening Wisconsin the official state paper, The Milwaukee Journal says the course of The Sentinel for two years or more back has brought its stock to the market. Once Sentinel stock was unobtainable. That paper has been detected in selling out the party interests and a secret connection with the "doodle-book." It did its best to defeat the state administration, and when it failed in its preconception moves, it failed also in its support of the ticket during the campaign.

The Sentinel has lost the confidence of its party and the proposed selection of The Wisconsin as official paper is plain evidence of that fact thrown squarely in the face. * * * So far has The Sentinel worked in its crooked political course that it has been suggested as the only plausible explanation that it is trying to force the party interest to buy it out. The party evidently prefers to let it alone, to struggle on with its spiteful management.

AN EXPERT OPINION

The Philadelphia Textile Record, which is devoted to the weaving industries, says, editorially, that sixty years ago young men might have had some excuse for doubting if the policy of sheltering domestic industry behind a protective tariff were a wise one; but the American who should venture to question that policy now has placed upon him the arduous task of trying to account for the fact that the most highly and persistently protected of the nations, starting with no manufactures at all, has acquired the first place among the nations, engaged in such industry, and is today the most self-dependent and self-contained, the richest and the most prosperous of any. In truth, the conditions now existing in the United States supply demonstration so complete of the fact that protection was best, for us at any rate, if not for other peoples, that there is no reason for wonder that the most vehement of the British free trade propagandists should begin to doubt if Mr. Cobden was right after all.

"It sometimes happens," says Dan B. Starkey in The Evening Wisconsin, "that the legislature has to act on some very trifling matters. There is a bill now pending authorizing the sale of a cemetery lot at Sparta now owned by the state. It was bought for the burial of children who died in the Sparta home, but a cemetery was afterwards established on the home grounds and the lot was never used. All that can be got for it is $40, but the legislature will have to pass a bill before it can be sold. A session of the legislature cost the state over $200,000 and assuming that it is fair to estimate the cost of making a law by dividing that amount by the number of bills passed, a little arithmetic will show that the cost is several times $40."

The belief that spring is here is strengthened by the fact that the pudamucks at the ostrich farm begin to sing whenever a ray of sunshine strikes them. Naturalists say the pudamuck is the best barometer in the world, and the ground hog must accordingly take a back seat.

Colonel Bryan still hopes to keep the free silver issue alive, and says "the old [silver] bell of independence must not be muffled." Bryan will never hear his favorite bell again, however. It has already sounded his political knell.

Kenosha Gazette—"The grave diggers of Janesville are threatening to go on a strike if their demands for $1.50 a day are not granted. Don't blame them. Just think of digging graves the past few weeks at that price!"

The real importance of the anti-pass theory is clearly shown in the opera house matter—passes for officials mean no revenue for city; no passes for officials means a fair revenue for the city.

Neither republican nor democratic aldermen can consistently accept a pass, as public sentiment compelled the placing of anti pass planks in the platforms of both parties last fall.

The announcement that Aguinaldo is now ready to sell out will be greeted with a mighty chorus to the effect that "I told you so!"

The Illinois infant that ate a piece of a certain Chicago paper died of yellow jaundice in spite of all the doctors could do.

And the license of the street railway and electric company might also be paid with passes.

Doubtless Aguinaldo prefers selling out to being thrown out.

General Miller's mills also grind exceeding fine.

THE MASSACRE OF HORSES.

HIDEOUS First Act of the Bull Fight at Valencia.

The first act of the bull fight at Valencia might be called the massacre of the horses, says the Saturday Review. There is no pretense of fighting and the picador rarely attempts to save his horse, although nothing would be easier; on the contrary, the horse is deliberately offered to the bull, with the very considerable chance, of course, that the picador himself may be wounded through his pads, or as he rolls over with his horse. The horses are old and lean, one eye is often bandaged, and if, as they often do, they press back in terror against the barrier, or become unmanageable, a red-coated chulo comes forward and takes the horse and another follows with a stick, and the horse is led up to the bull and placed sideways to receive the charge. The bull, who has not the slightest desire to attack the horse, is finally teased into irritation by the red coats and the pink cloaks which are tossed and flaunted before him. He paws the ground, puts down his head and charges. The pike pricks him and his horns plunge into the horse's belly or are caught on the loose wooden saddle, or, as happened recently, scrape the picador's leg. The cloaks are flourished again and the bull follows them. Then the horse, if he is still on his feet, is again turned to the bull. There is a great red hole in him and the blood drips; but he is dragged and beaten forward. The bull plunges at him a second time, and this time he rolls over with his rider, who scrambles out from under him, his yellow clothes stained with blood. Then one chulo takes the horse and beats the horse on the head and another chulo drags him by the tail, and, if he can, he staggers to his feet. He is literally falling to pieces; he has not ten minutes to live; but the saddle is thrown on him again and the picador helped into the saddle. He makes a few steps, the picador drives his heels into him, and then jumps off as he falls for the last time and lies kicking on the ground, a torn and battered and sopping mass.

COLD INTERFERED WITH LEAF TRADE

BUSINESS WILL NOW PICK UP AGAIN.

Prices Are Being Fairly Well Maintained And Holders of Choice Lots Get Outside Quotations—Warehouses Are Busy Places—Trust Invades the Cigar Field.

With the advent of more congenial weather, buying is being resumed in many of the growing sections, but with scarcely as much vigor as before the cold wave drove the dealers from the field, says the Edgerton Reporter. The transactions of each week now slices off another portion from the unsold remnants of the crop which is steadily passing from first hands. Prices are being pretty fairly well maintained. The holders of choice lots seem to have no trouble in securing outside quotations.

Sales reaching us since last report: Levi Kittelsen 11a at 74c. L. O. Anderson 6a at 74c. Ole Reindal 8a at 74c. James Craig 5a at 63c. John Furon 6a at 63c. E. K. Joetel 6a at 63c. W. Harvey 5a at 74c. J. Mikelyard 5a at 63c. Wm. Seifert 2a at 51c. John Reutz 2a at 51c. Albert Rutz 2a at 51c. The receiving, which was held back on account of cold weather and frozen condition of the tobacco, has commenced again and the warehouses are being crowded with bundle goods.

Warehouses Busy. Old stock is moving in a moderate way and generally at satisfactory prices. C. L. Culton reports the sale of 210 cases of '97 and Andrew Jensen a 100 cases or more to eastern parties.

Every sorting room, with a few exceptions, in the warehouses of the state are busily engaged in handling the crop, furnishing employment to an army of help with a prospect in sight for a long season's work.

The packers never before attempted to handle so large a portion of any crop in the bundle as they are doing this season and an early start will also mean a late ending of warehouse handling.

The shipments out of storage reach about 18 car loads, 900 cases for the week from this station to all points. During the same period 29 car loads of bundle goods were received from outside points for handling in this market. Since last report 2,200 cases of cigar leaf were exported from New York.

The A. T. Co.'s New Move.

What effect the advent of the American Tobacco Co. into the cigar leaf markets will have upon trade is a question that packers have begun to discuss. The trust has become so large a consumer of cigar leaf that it has become a well settled conviction among the best posted dealers that it was only a question of a very short time when the A. T. Co. would enter the growing districts and purchase their supplies from first hands the same as they have been doing in the southern districts for years past. The company has been taking close to 10,000 cases of Wisconsin leaf the past few seasons and their order is one that dealers have been very anxious to secure.

Trust In Cigar Field.

The forming of a new corporation in New York last week in which some of the high officials of the A. T. Co. are interested is the first notice to the trade that the trust had decided to invade the cigar leaf field. Such a strong competitor in the market tends to cause some uneasiness among the smaller packers but it remains yet to be seen what effect this factor will have upon the trade in general. Whether the growers will be benefited by the new condition of affairs is yet to be demonstrated. We have before referred to what the southern tobacco growers think of the trust's operations in the field.

COMMENCE STREET WORK

Spring Cleaning is Now Well Under Way Here.

Fifty men and several teams were placed at work this morning cleaning away the winter accumulations off the business streets. Street Commissioner Palmer thinks that this is the proper time to commence, that the streets are practically free from ice.

The improvement on Main and Milwaukee streets is a most noticeable one and will be fully appreciated by the general public.

TO WATER CONSUMERS

Next Few Days Will Be Very Hard on Water Pipes.

The greatest danger to water pipes in the ground is after the cold weather breaks. We therefore advise consumers to let the water run from the taps for some time yet. In case of fire shut off the water.

HOLD STREET FAIR DURING CYCLE MEET

ARRANGEMENTS TO THAT END BEING MADE.

Many of the Local Merchants Favor the Plan—Would Be a One Day Affair And Would Be a Most Fitting Close to the State Cycle Tournament.

This city may have a street fair this summer. The idea is to hold it in connection with the state bicycle tournament and to have it a one day affair, the final day of the meet being favored. Those who have the management of the bicycle tournament in charge will soon visit the merchants here to see what they think of the plan.

Street fairs have for the past two years been all the rage in different parts of the country and in towns of the size of Janesville. That no county fair will be held in Janesville this year is no longer a question of doubt. The exhibit part of a street fair is arranged the same as a county fair. Premiums are offered by the different merchants. The exhibits are displayed in the booths erected in front of the business places. A merchant, for instance, would offer a prize for the best exhibit or grade of barley, and such exhibit would be displayed in front of his store, and if there was any space left, he could make a display of his merchandise.

For entertainment, a bicycle parade, speeches, bands of music, variety shows and dances would hold full sway.

To properly advertise such a street fair through the surrounding country would be one of the strong points as mapped out by the committee.

The business streets would need decorating from one end to the other with bunting, flags and colored electric lights.

To carry out this and the advertising would require about $1,000, which sum the citizens and merchants would be called on to donate.

Several of the merchants when called on today, were heartily in favor of the plan, the majority favoring it for the reason that no county fair or horse race meet would likely be held here during the summer.

Arthur Babbitt, of Beloit, who has had considerable experience in the managing of fairs, has been asked to take the affair in hand.

W. C. Leitch, of Columbus, Wis., writes that he believes a street fair once given in Janesville would always after wards be an annual affair.

Mr. Leitch says, "that the street fair held in Columbus last summer was a decided success" and that "the county fair is doomed and street fairs are bound to take its place."

PRES. M'KINLEY'S BOSTON ADDRESS

ESCORTED TO THE STATE HOUSE THIS MORNING.

The President Was Given a Warm Welcome in the Bean City—Delivers a Short But Interesting Address to the Massachusetts Law Makers.

Boston, Feb. 17.—[Special]—President McKinley arrived here this morning and was escorted to the statehouse, where the legislature was in joint session. He was given a warm welcome by the president of the association, after which he made a short but very impressive speech, which was frequently interspersed by continued applause. In the course of his remarks he said: "I am glad to be in this historical ground. It reviveth the memories sacred in American life. It reveals the struggle experienced by the founders of Massachusetts for liberty and independence." He also said that "desertion of duty is not an American quality. We may regard the situation before us at the present time as a burden or as an opportunity; but whether one or the other, it is here and conscience and civilization require us to meet it bravely."

"A TRIP TO THE CIRCUS."

Special Views and Moving Pictures at The Grand.

Mr. Coxe comes to Janesville under the management of W. A. Patrick, of this city, and his entertainment is of interest to both old and young. Interest in the lecture will be accentuated by the special views and moving pictures, the latter being particularly novel and attractive. The story of the white tents is told in a delightful manner and as nothing like it has ever been attempted before, a large audience should be in attendance at the Grand next Wednesday evening.

Mr. Vincent now brings suit to recover the tobacco on the grounds that it is his property and not Maxson's.

An International Tribunal.

Washington, Feb. 17.—The joint high commission has agreed upon the establishment of a permanent international court of tribunal, similar to the interstate commerce commission, for the adjustment of disputes that may arise from time to time affecting commerce and transportation between the United States and Canada, both by sea and by land. One member of this tribunal will be named by Great Britain, one by the United States, and if it is desired to have a third member, he will probably be appointed by a neutral power. It will be in the nature of a permanent arbitration board, with powers limited to commercial questions.

Naval Work Is Not Crippled.

Washington, Feb. 17.—Reports to the navy department and the bureau of steam engineering show that the fire at the Brooklyn navy yard will not seriously interfere with the progress of construction and engineering work there. The official report to the department says that the steam engineering, machine and pattern shops, all old, are a total loss, but the new boiler and erecting shops were not touched by the flames. Plenty of tools for the use of the steam engineering force are in the shops of the construction and repair department, and the yards and docks department of the yard, and the tools lost in the fire will not be missed.

When Does the Century End?

The opening day of the twentieth century is still a matter of inquiry. It will not be January 1st, 1900, but January 1st, 1901. It takes a full 100 years, not ninety-nine, to complete the century. The first decade did not end with the close of the year 9, but year 10, and the second decade began with the year 11. The first century ended with the close of the year 100, and the nineteenth century will end with the close of 1900, not with 1899. Anyone having doubts can count back year by year from 1900 to 1.

Relative Size of Armies.

In Germany there is one soldier for every seventeen civilians; in France the proportion is one to 18; in Russia, one to 17; in Great Britain one to 72; in the United States, one to 445.

EVERETT N. RANSOM SECURES A DIVORCE

SEQUEL TO THE TIRE SETTER CASE IN COURT.

Desertion is the Ground Alleged And Judge Bennett Orders a Separation—Father Gets Custody of One Child And the Mother Cares For the Other.

In the circuit court today, Judge Bennett granted a decree of divorce in the case of Everett N. Ransom vs. Ella M. Ransom. The ground was desertion. John Cunningham appeared for the plaintiff and E. D. McGowan for the defendant. An amicable arrangement was made for the care of the two minor children of the parties, the daughter being left in the care of the defendant and the son in the care of the plaintiff, each party being decided to be suitable for this trust.

Especially interest in the case developed from the connection of the plaintiff with the tire-setter case exploited in the papers some time ago.

EASE WEILTS AND CUSHIONET TURNS

They are called and as the names imply will give more comfort to the wearer than any other shoe made. The advantages of the cushionet turn to the wearer are that they are made with the footrests this makes it very soft for tender feet, and have a heavy outside sole which is real pliable, something unusual for a heavy shoe. No lady should fail to see these shoes and especially those who are troubled with chilblains or soft corns on the bottom of the foot. Every lady ought to wear case welts and cushionet turns. Why? Because they are the most comfortable. Those who have corns ought to wear them because they will give immediate relief. Remove the cause and the corn will disappear and those who have no corns ought to wear them to prevent setting corns. These shoes are made over the most modern lasts by Barker & Bowman of Syracuse, N. Y., who have a national reputation for making high grade footwear only. We have all sizes and widths.

J. D. Clarke returned from his trip to Ranney, Thursday night, where he has been testing the milk of a large herd of dairy cows.

President Booth C. Davis, of Alfred (N. Y.) university, will be the guest of Milton friends today.

Mrs. Edwin Shaw and son are both sick with grip. Miss Gertrude Vollmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Vollmer, has gone to Honolulu, where she will engage in missionary labor in the Seventh Day Advent mission, of the Sandwich Islands.

HELD FOR DAMAGES.

Never in the records of the American admiralty courts does there appear any entry of such a heavy suit as that which has been made against the English ship Cromartyshire, now lying at Snyder avenue wharf, Philadelphia. The vessel was recently attached under a writ filed by the Compagnie Generale Transatlantique to recover damages for the loss of the steamer La Bourgoigne, which was sunk in collision with the Cromartyshire off Sable island on July 4 last.

THE CROMARTYSHIRE.

Under the attachment the security was fixed at $200,000 for the release of the ship. The owners have asked for a reduction of this amount, and admiralty surveyors appointed to assess the value of the craft have fixed it at $33,000.

Berry Can Back His Words.

Congressman Berry of Kentucky, who said on the floor of the house that the United States might have to whip Germany as well as Spain, is six feet four inches tall, weighs 210 pounds, and feels entirely responsible for his remarks. The German ambassador is said to have inquired officially regarding the man who made the statement referred to.

Jeweled Pigs.

The women are wearing little pigs this season carved out of clear rock crystal or opaque stones of the nature of agate, and suspended from the neck by a ring inserted at the top of the animal's back. These charms never measure more than an inch, and some would stand on the thumb nail.
